Reader's Opinions

It was hard for me to rate this book because at various points I really dug it and at other various points I almost gave up on it. O'Neill did a great job portraying and developing some of the characters and I particularly enjoyed Inspector Groves in all his blustering glory....

The Lamplighter is many things. It is historical fiction, it is a murder mystery, it is a horror story. I became absorbed in 19th century Edinburgh with all it's twists and turns. Groves is the police inspector investigating the brutal murders on the city streets. But he is not the only one trying to solve this mystery. There is professor...
